Judge: Ms Jane Pike

Thank you to the Tasmanian Club for my appointment to judge, breed survey and stenographer for Melanie Groth over the weekend. The stenographer "gig" was not in my contract, but I enjoyed doing it (smile)!

After a very full Jetstar flight into Hobart on the Friday night I stayed at a very quirky but very comfortable motel not far from the grounds.

The show started at the completion of the Breed Survey which was around 11.30 am. The weather was somewhat warm for Tasmania and as the day wore on, some of the dogs were feeling the heat.

I was presented with four male long stock coats and two females. The dog that was awarded Challenge dog, Best of Breed Long Stock coat is a breed surveyed, imported dog, Jack von Fenrir who has not been in Australia very long. He is a very impressive dog with very good movement and presence. I believe he was sufficiently firm on the gun, recovered after the reaction and deserved his Excellent Grading.

The stock coat animals consisted of six males and eighteen females. The intermediate bitch class was one of the highlights. The winner was a very lovely bitch who was sired by Chili Della Valcuvia, who has a very bright future. The first two females in the open bitch class were stand outs and after much consideration I placed Zumbrozac Frankensteinen in first place with Ondja du val d'Anzin a very, very close second. My open bitch winner was my Best in Show with the very lovely male dog Obama du Montgison Challenge dog.

Conformation points noted from the show were:

- many animals with beautiful dark masking,
- on the whole very good planes of skull and foreface and dark eyes,
- restrictions regarding shortness of under-chest and short steep croups need to be considered,
- toplines were overall very firm with only a few with peaks over the topline,
- forequarter angulation needs improvement, and
- hindquarter angulation was good overall with only a few animals that were a little deep.

The Show was exceptionally well run and a credit to a small hard-working committee.

Thank you to my stenographers, my amazing steward, the show manager for looking after me, the committee, the hard working canteen staff and the exhibitors for their sportsmanship on the weekend.
