

RICK RICHARDSON MEMORIAL CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

SATURDAY 24TH AUGUST 2019

JUDGE – MS J. PIKE (SA)

Thank you to the Western Australian Club for the invitation to judge this prestigious show in honor of Rick. This is the third time that I have judged in the West and appreciate the tyranny of distance that your breeders and exhibitors need to endure; however the quality of animals presented on the day were very pleasing. Total entry of 65 - 18 Long Stock coats and 47 Stock coats.

The weather was a little chilly to start but once the sun rose the day was almost perfect. The grounds were in immaculate condition with only a few pesky birds who took the odd short cut through the ring just to keep me on my toes!

Thank you to my stewards Leeanne and Andi, Vicki for an amazing effort on the computer and Tracy and her show committee for putting together a lovely trophy table and a tasty lunch. Big thank you to Robyn and Kevin for looking after me and for the social entertainment!

General observations of the animals presented – the depth of hindquarter is evident on some animals and care must be taken when considering future animals in breeding programs. Overall the strength of heads is very good. Only a few I noted with underjaw weakness or incorrect planes of skull and foreface. Short underchest coupled with short/steep croups continue to lurk. Selection of sires with good length of underchest and correct body proportions may help in this area. Overall the quality was very good.

On review of the results I was most impressed with the progeny from Schaeferhund Rafael. This sire presented some very good quality young animals and older animals at the show. The baby bitch class was particularly lovely. Seigen Suris Alfie, another local dog to the West, is also producing good type which is pleasing.

My Best in Show winner was the very lovely Siegen Mischievous who was the winner of the open class. For me she is a bitch of very good type with clean lines. The young sable puppy bitch Bronboreo Ginger Nina, who is a Kaygarr Arko/Seigen Hayos Asha daughter, stole my heart and I will watch her progress with interest.

Thank you to all of the exhibitors for your sportsmanlike conduct and for your company the following day while watching the Walter Martin Memorial Show.
