

Ballarat Dog Club Championship Show

Sunday January 28th 2024

Mrs Jenny De Lucia (SA)

Firstly, I would like to thank the Ballarat Dog Club for the appointment to Judge and to the GSDCV for their recommendation and support. I thank my stenographer, Dearne Jackson for a great job in keeping up with my critiquing and to my Steward, Vince Tantaro for helping to keep the show running smoothly.

The weather was exceptional and made for a very enjoyable day of dog showing.

The show attracted 61 entries with a total of 54 being shown.

There was a mixture of type within the classes. Eye colour was generally very good ranging from medium to dark. Some underchests were slightly short. Hocks were generally very good with only a small number of loose hocks in the younger classes. Size of the exhibits was overall within size and only two measuring oversize on the day. A gun test was carried out in the Open Classes and all animals were firm on the gun. The most pleasing class in terms of type was the baby puppy bitch class. This class had consistent type with very good colour and pigment and was enjoyable to judge.

My Stock Coat Best of Breed went to the Open Bitch, *Willmaurs Gidget Girl AZ who impressed with her balanced body proportions and movement and was my clear winner on the day.

My Long Stock Coat Best of Breed went to the Open Dog, *Jack von Fenrir a Z, a dog who is well within size at 65cm, is without exaggeration, with a very strong head and has a very balanced movement.

I thank all the exhibitors for your entry and sportsmanlike conduct and wish you all the very best for the future.
