

Newcastle & Hunter Region German Shepherd Dog Club

6th October 2024 Open Show

Judge - Matt Morris (NSW)

I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to the Newcastle & Hunter Region German Shepherd Dog Club for the invitation to judge the October 2024 Open Show.

From the moment I arrived, I felt welcomed by both the committee and members, and the atmosphere was truly fantastic!

The weather was perfect—sunny but not too hot—creating ideal conditions for the event.

This allowed us to enjoy the classes and even incorporate a “loose lead” exercise in the older classes, where I was thrilled to see some exhibits demonstrate a beautifully balanced gait.

We also substituted the gun-test with a clapper exercise, and I’m pleased to report that all participants passed with flying colors!

One of the highlights for me was witnessing the exceptional sportsmanship of the handlers and double handlers. And a big thank you to all the owners for showcasing their beautiful dogs on the day! The all-black intermediate LSC Female and the intermediate SC Male are impressive up and coming youngster, and look forward to tracking their future show career.

We did celebrate the best dog and bitch in both varieties, as well as Best and runner-up in Show:

- Best Bitch LSC – Kingland Black Betty
- Best Bitch SC – Astasia Suri – Best in show
- Best Dog LSC - Cinderhof Diabolo – Runner up Best in Show.
- Best Dog SC – Swartzlic Meine Cash

I’d like to give special thanks to Kay, Paul, and the committee for their incredible support, as well as Leanne Lynch for her excellent stenography.

Finally, a shout-out to the clubs for the lovely best in show prize—a stunning framed rosette donated by Paul and Kay York.

Looking forward to more wonderful events ahead!

Best regards,

Matt Morris
