

70th Members Speciality Competition

26/4/26

Judge: Ms Jessica Kada (NSW)

Thank you to the club for the invitation to judge in Adelaide once again. I always enjoy my visits down south, where I am made to feel very welcome by such a friendly and hospitable club. Thankfully, the weather was kind to us this year. I arrived prepared for the usual West Beach conditions, complete with a heavy raincoat, but fortunately it never left the suitcase!

While the entry numbers were lower than we would all like to see, it was understandable given the circumstances. The event was held only a few weeks prior to the National, followed another members' competition just a month earlier, and coincided with a double Championship Show weekend interstate. All of these factors undoubtedly had the potential to impact entries. My sincere thanks to all exhibitors who supported the show.

Despite the smaller entry, I thoroughly enjoyed my assignment and was generally pleased with the quality of exhibits presented. It is encouraging to see that concerns regarding height appear to be diminishing, with the majority of exhibits comfortably within the desired size limits. I did note some issues with pastern strength, as well as firmness in hocks and elbows. On a positive note, hindquarter angulation continues to improve, and I was pleased to assess a number of dogs displaying more moderate and functional hindquarters.

A special thank you goes to my excellent steward, Ian Cooke, who as always did a fantastic job. I would also like to thank my stenographers for their efforts throughout the day. Despite a few changes along the way, each of you was a pleasure to work with and did an outstanding job keeping pace with my rather rapid critiques. Many thanks to Brigetta, Lyn and Mel.

It was pleasing to see a relatively even split between the Short Coat and Long Stock Coat entries, with the majority of exhibits displaying good pigmentation and colour. A variety of stud lines were represented, most notably descendants of Salvatore vom Grafenwald, Kaster van Contra and Yacco vom Eichenplatz.

Thank you again to the club and all exhibitors for a most enjoyable day. I greatly appreciated the opportunity and look forward to my next visit to Adelaide.
